3. Number of panels. The number of solar panels required for a solar energy system is a key determinant of the overall cost as it directly influences both the initial investment and long-term financial benefits.. More panels naturally lead to higher upfront costs due to the price of the panels themselves. However, this higher initial expense can be offset by the ...

Today's premium monocrystalline solar panels typically cost between $1 and $1.50 per Watt, putting the price of a single 400-watt solar panel between $400 and $600, depending on how you buy it. Less efficient polycrystalline panels are typically cheaper at $0.75 per watt, putting the price of a 400-watt panel at $300.
