She proved a quick study in the arcane side of things, but fencing was something of a challenge. By the end of our lessons, however, she had learned to combine spellcraft with swordplay: when to cast from afar, and when to lunge forward with a well-timed thrust!

All things considered, they can better aid the cause by bolstering our defenses in Eorzea-though their eagerness to do more has been noted. We few shall have to suffice. Ere we embark, we must distribute the warding scales to our comrades.

Because the game's split into zones and they can choose what systems are loaded in each zone, they can un-load combat and world data to load the data needed for glamour plates in city zones. This is largely why inn rooms are so limited on what you can do in them; all those systems are offloaded to make room for things exclusively in the inn room.
