Square brackets are used in quotations to clarify or replace unclear text or to alter the text so the quotation fits grammatically with the surrounding text. Square brackets can also be used with three dots to show where text is missing or with "sic" to highlight text as the original author's words.

The three dots, ellipsis (plural, ellipses), indicate missing text. In square brackets they indicate missing paragraphs. Square brackets, containing text, can be used in a quotation to help the sense of the extract, or an explanation, i.e. any useful text that is not part of the original quotation.
