How to decorate a modern living room with a TV?

Combining functionality with style, TV feature walls with concealed storage is a smart design choice for modern living rooms. Incorporate drawers underneath the TV space that can keep DVDs, video games and other items out of sight when not in use.

What is a TV feature wall?

A TV feature wall isn't just a simple backdrop for your television. Think of it as the stage that sets the scene for all your binge-watching sessions, movie nights and sports viewing parties. With the right design, you can enhance your viewing experience as well as elevate the aesthetics of your living room.

How do you paint a wall behind a TV?

Paint the wall behind the TV a dark, moody color so it blends into the background. This is a great option if you want a flush TV but can't do one for whatever reason.

How do you decorate a living room with a black TV?

In this cozy living room from Jenn Pablo Studio, the black flat screen mimics the firebox and a Greta Grossman-designed Grasshopper lamp, adding contrast in a small space otherwise decorated with neutral tones and wood accents. Make sure that the TV isn't the only source of light on the wall to keep it from dominating.

How to make a TV work in a small living room?

Colorful wall paint, furnishings, and a wall of bookshelves will help to keep a TV from dominating a small space. In this London living room from Studio Peake, a wall of built-ins includes a tailor-made niche for a flat-screen TV. A trick for making a TV work in a small living room is taking care that it isn't the only black object in the room.

How to decorate a TV wall?

Marrying modern design with luxurious touches, this style transforms your TV wall into an elegant focal point. Incorporate metallic accents in your design, such as gold, brass or silver. This could be in the form of a metallic TV frame or even metal inlays in your wall panels.
