What happens after pre-boarding?

After pre-boarding, passengers in priority boarding groups 1 and 2 will start boarding. All other boarding groups will then be invited to board. Please note that all boarding groups will be called to board individually and in sequence.

Do you have a group boarding system?

Get your trip off to a great start by arriving at the gate well in advance so that your flight can take-off on time. We have introduced a group boarding system on all our flights to simplify boarding, reduce congestion at the gate and make things easier for you. You will notice a group number on your boarding pass, showing your boarding priority.

Where can I find my boarding group?

Your boarding group can be found on your boarding pass. Please only proceed to boarding when your group is called and keep your boarding pass and necessary travel documents handy. Passengers who check in together will, of course, be assigned to the same boarding group and will therefore also be able to board together.

Do I need a boarding pass?
